

Principal's Speech – September 2, 2025

Good morning, students, teachers, and staff,

Welcome back to school! I hope your first day was filled with excitement, meaningful reconnections, and a renewed sense of possibility. As we begin the second day of the new term, I'd like to take a moment to speak to you—not just as your principal, but as someone who truly believes in your potential.

Yesterday, we introduced eight new teachers. Today, I'm pleased to introduce six new Teaching Assistants who will be supporting your learning in various areas. Please give them a warm welcome when I call their names: Mr. Kam, Ms. Yeung, Ms. Sze, Ms. Hung, Mr. Wong, and Ms. Lee.

They will be assisting in regular lessons, Saturday classes, and reading sessions. I encourage you to follow their instructions and make the most of the opportunity to learn from them.

The beginning of a school year is like opening a new book. Its pages are blank, waiting to be filled with your stories—stories of learning, growth, and achievement. If you want your story to be filled with joy and success, remember this: work hard, respect your teachers, and be kind to your fellow students.

Let me also highlight a few exciting developments this term:

1. New DT and STEM Centre on 1/F – Although it's not yet ready, it will soon be available for teacher meetings and after-school self-study.
2. Basketball Court Upgrade – The surface has been improved with more durable material that prevents water accumulation, making it safer and better for ball games.

3. Campus News – In addition to our regular Campus TV broadcast on Tuesday mornings, we now have English Campus News every Wednesday.
4. Exchange Tours – We are planning a Japan Tour on September 27 and a Singapore Sister School Tour in October. Additionally, two Singapore schools will be visiting us in October or November.
5. New Timetable Structure – We've adopted a 5-Day Cycle, and hall assemblies will now take place on Wednesday afternoons.

Let's embrace these changes with enthusiasm and make the most of the opportunities ahead.

Thank you, and let's work together to make this term a truly fantastic one!
